Apostolic Vicariate of Isiolo

VISION

Making a Difference in Peoples Lives while living the Gospel of Christ

BACKGROUND

The Apostolic Vicariate of Isiolo, is located in Northern part of Kenya about 300 km from Kenya's capital city, Nairobi. The vicariate covers Isiolo District and is inhabited mainly by pastoral and few agro-pastoral communities. The district is classified as ASAL (Arid and Semi Arid Lands). The district status is 5% semi-arid, 30% arid and 65% very arid.

OBJECTIVES

To have a society where:

- The dignity of human person is paramount and respected
- There is recognition of what God created, maintained and cherished for the present and future generation
- Everybody especially the poor, marginalized and depressed find hope and empowerment to come to the fullness of their humanity as part of global community
- A difference is realized in peoples lives through (w)holistic development of human person as mandated by the gospel of Christ and sustenance of pastoral and social economic needs.

VALUES

- Inspired and motivated by the Gospel of Christ and social teaching while serving the people of God
- Promote social pastoral mission of the Church
- Integrated human development
- Accountability and transparency

All these in respect to the Motto of the Kenya Episcopal Conference "You shall be my witnesses"
